CONFLICT COACHING

ACCREDITATION APPLICATION

Accreditation as a REAL Conflict Coach with CCI offers your clients a trustmark of quality.

CCI offers two levels of accreditation:

1. REAL Accredited Conflict Coach
2. REAL Accredited Master Conflict Coach

REAL Accredited Conflict Coach

To be eligible for accreditation as a REAL Conflict Coach, candidates must comply with the following requirements

1. Completion of a recognised REAL Conflict Coaching™ Fundamentals 4-day course evidenced by a certificate of attendance signed by your authorised REAL lead trainer or completion of another approved course.
2. Presentation of a REAL Portfolio demonstrating use of the REAL Conflict Coaching System in five sessions of at least one hour, with at least three different clients, which is assessed by a REAL Conflict Coaching assessor as competent.
3. Participation in a video-recorded conflict coaching session, which is assessed by a REAL Conflict Coach assessor as 'competent' and in accordance with the REAL Conflict Coaching System and Competencies. The session will be one hour in duration.
4. Agreement to comply with the REAL Conflict Coaching Practice Standards.
5. Evidence of good character.
6. Evidence of client's consent to have conflict coaching session video-recorded for assessment.

REAL Accredited Master Conflict Coach

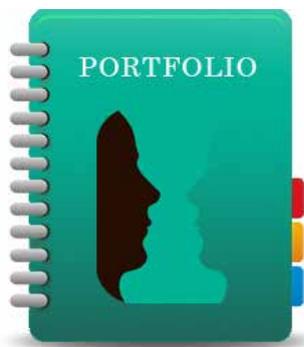

To be eligible for accreditation as a REAL Master Conflict Coach with CCI, candidates must comply with the following requirements:

1. Achievement of accreditation as a REAL Conflict Coach.
2. Completion of the REAL Fundamentals and the REAL Mastery training as evidenced by certificates of attendance signed by your authorised REAL lead trainer.
3. Presentation of a REAL Portfolio demonstrating use of the REAL Conflict Coaching System for 40 hours of coaching sessions with three to five different clients, which is assessed by a REAL Conflict Coaching assessor as competent.
4. Agreement to comply with the REAL Conflict Coaching Practice Standards.
5. Evidence of good character.
